Director of Technical Education,
Directorate of Technical Education,
Guindy, Chennai – 600 025.

To

The Principals of all Government, Government
Aided and Self Financing Engineering and Polytechnic Colleges in Tamil Nadu.

Letter No. 28759 / TAC / 2019, dated: 24.07.2019

Sir / Madam,

Sub: Technical Education – Curbing the menace of ragging in Higher Educational Institutions – Display of posters in College campus –
Minutes of Ninth Meeting of State Level Monitoring Cell held on 08.09.2018 at Raj Bhavan – Instructions to be followed – Communication to all Technical Institutions (Both Polytechnic and Engineering Colleges) – Regarding.

- Ref: 1. The Tamil Nadu Prohibition of Ragging Act, 1997 (Tamil Nadu Act 7 of 1997).
2. G.O.Ms.No. 366, Higher Education (G1) Department, dated:
26.07.1999, (Framing rules under Tamil Nadu Prohibition of Ragging Act).
3. AICTE, New Delhi Notification dated: 01.07.2009.
4. University Grants Commission, New Delhi, Letter No. 1-15/2015
(ARC) pt.I, dated: 26.06.2018.
5. Government Letter No. 19340 / G1 (Higher Education Department) / 2018 – 1, dated: 15.10.2018.

In Tamil Nadu Prohibition of Ragging Act No.7 of 1997 (cited in the first reference), the mode of giving complaint by the student, Procedure to be adopted after receipt of complaint, reporting to the authority concerned have been clearly indicated under the rules of the said Act. In Tamil Nadu, as per G.O.Ms.No.366, Higher Education (G1) Department, dated: 26.07.1999 (cited in the second reference), rules have been framed for the mode of giving complaint by the student about ragging and the procedure to be followed by the Institutions on receipt of complaints from students. The AICTE, New Delhi has informed (cited in the third reference) to follow some of the guidelines in order to prevent ragging in Educational Institutions.

The UGC letter (cited in the fourth reference) has been received by this office as mentioning as follows:

"In pursuance to the Judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India dated: 08.05.2009 in Civil Appeal No. 887 / 2009, the University Grants Commission framed "UGC Regulations on Curbing the Menace of Ragging in Higher Educational Institutions, 2009". It is once again brought to the kind notice that ragging is a criminal offence and UGC has framed regulations on curbing the menace of ragging in Higher Educational Institutions in order to prohibit, prevent and eliminate the scourge of ragging. These regulations are mandatory and all institutions are required to take necessary steps for its implementation in to including the monitoring mechanism as per provisions in the above regulations and ensure its strict compliance. The Regulations are available in the UGC website i.e www.ugc.ac.in.

As per provision in the above Regulations and for ensuring its strict compliance, UGC has designed and printed four types of posters to create awareness in the students about ill effects of ragging.

It has been requested to display these posters on the office, especially in the areas where people generally assemble like canteen, reception and common places etc and also requested to fill an online compliance of the prominent display of posters on UGC Anti-Ragging website i.e www.antiragging.in".

Meanwhile, the Government letter cited in the fifth reference has been received by this office along with the Minutes of the Ninth meeting of State Level Monitoring Cell held on 08.09.2018 at Raj Bhavan, Chennai, under the Chairmanship of Hon'ble Governor of Tamil Nadu.

During the meeting, some decisions have been taken. Important points are highlighted as follows:

- All Educational Institutions of Higher Education should have Anti-Ragging Committees. The Committee meetings should take place once in the month of June and again on the day the College reopens.
- These Committees should be constituted in a comprehensive manner for which the model practiced in other States like Maharashtra may be examined.
- The meetings of the District level Anti-Ragging Committee should be held under the Chairmanship of the District Collectors in the month of June and again in the month of July.
- All Universities including deemed universities should have Anti – Ragging Monitoring cells headed by the Vice Chancellor for which the Registrar will be the convener. They should include a representative from the police department.
- All cases of ragging should be instantaneously acted upon by the anti ragging committee and the report to the State Monitoring Cell furnished by the University monitoring cell within 24 hours. The Principal of the concerned Educational Institution and the Registrar of the concerned University may be asked to be present at the meeting of the State monitoring Cell, if considered necessary.
- Either the Regional Joint Director of the District or a Senior Principal of a College designated by the Regional Joint Director in charge of that District shall be the Nodal Officer for the District Anti- Ragging Committee and shall coordinate with the Collector for timely conduct of the meetings

4. Government Letter No. 19340 / G1 (Higher Education Department) / 2018 – 1, dated: 15.10.2018.

The letter cited in the first reference has been received by this office along with the Government letter second cited whereas it has been mentioned as follows:

"In pursuance to the Judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India dated: 08.05.2009 in Civil Appeal No. 887 / 2009, the University Grants Commission framed "UGC Regulations on Curbing the Menace of Ragging in Higher Educational Institutions, 2009". It is once again brought to the kind notice that ragging is a criminal offence and UGC has framed regulations on curbing the menace of ragging in Higher Educational Institutions in order to prohibit, prevent and eliminate the scourge of ragging. These regulations are mandatory and all institutions are required to take necessary steps for its implementation in to including the monitoring mechanism as per provisions in the above regulations and ensure its strict compliance. The Regulations are available on the UGC website i.e www.ugc.ac.in and UGC anti ragging website www.antiragging.in.

As per provision in the above Regulations and for ensuring its strict compliance, UGC has designed and printed four types of posters to create awareness in the students about ill effects of ragging.

26th June, 2018

Dear Sir/Madam

In pursuance to the Judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India dated 08.05.2009 in Civil Appeal No. 887/2009, the University Grants Commission framed "UGC Regulations on Curbing the Menace of Ragging in Higher Educational Institutions, 2009". It is once again brought to your kind notice that ragging is a criminal offence and UGC has framed regulations on curbing the menace of ragging in higher educational institutions in order to prohibit, prevent and eliminate the scourge of ragging. These regulations are mandatory and all institutions are required to take necessary steps for its implementation in toto including the monitoring mechanism as per provisions in the above regulations and ensure its strict compliance. The Regulations are available on the UGC website i.e. www.ugc.ac.in.

As per provision in the above Regulations and for ensuring its strict compliance, UGC has designed and printed four types of posters to create awareness in the students about ill effects of ragging.

You are requested to display these posters on your office, especially in the areas where people generally assemble like canteen, reception and common places etc. In this connection, we are sending 05 packets of 04 types of posters to you.

You are also requested to fill an online compliance of the prominent display of posters on UGC Anti-Ragging website i.e. www.antiragging.in

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

(Rajnish Jain)

D.O. No. F. 1-15/2009(ARC) pt-III

25th July, 2017

Sub: Curbing the menace of ragging in higher educational institutions.

Dear Sir/Madam,

In pursuance to the Judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India dated 8.5.2009 in Civil Appeal 887/2009, the UGC notified "Regulations on Curbing the Menace of Ragging in Higher Educational Institutions, 2009". The Regulations are available on the UGC website i.e. www.ugc.ac.in.

Any violation of these regulations will be viewed seriously. If any institution fails to take adequate steps to prevent ragging or does not act in accordance with these Regulations or fails to punish perpetrators of incidents of ragging suitably, it will attract punitive action against itself by the UGC.

You are requested to step up anti-ragging mechanism by way of adequate publicity through various media, constitution of anti-ragging committee and anti ragging squad, setting up of Anti Ragging Cell, install CCTV cameras at vital points, Anti- Ragging workshops, updating all websites with nodal officers complete details, alarm bells etc. Regular interaction and counseling with the students, identification of trouble-trigger, mention of Anti-ragging warning in the institution's prospectus and information booklets/brochures shall be ensured. Surprise inspection of hostels, students accommodation, canteens, rest cum recreational room, toilets, bus-stands and any other measure which would augur well in preventing/quelling ragging and a uncalled for behavior/incident shall be undertaken.

Students in distress due to ragging related incidents can call the National Anti-ragging Helpline 1800-181-5522 (24x7 Toll Free) or e-mail the Anti-Ragging Helpline at helpline@antiragging.in. For any other information regarding ragging, please visit the UGC website i.e. www.ugc.ac.in & www.antiragging.in or contact UGC monitoring agency i.e. Aman Satya Kachroo Trust on following No. 0987117030/09818400116 (only in case of emergency).

The UGC has got developed 4 short films and a documentary film to counsel students on ill effects of ragging. These films are uploaded on UGC website.

All Universities/Institutions are requested to show these films regularly to the students during orientation and other programmes. These movies are available on the following link, www.ugc.ac.in/page/Videos-Regarding-Ragging.aspx.

Subj: Curbing the menace of ragging in higher educational institutions

Dear Sir/Madam,

In pursuance to the Judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India dated 8.5.2009 in Civil Appeal No. 887/2009, the UGC notified "Regulations on Curbing the Menace of Ragging in Higher Educational Institutions, 2009". The Regulations are available on the UGC website i.e. www.ugc.ac.in.

Any violation of these regulations will be viewed seriously. If any institution fails to take adequate steps to prevent ragging or does not act in accordance with these Regulations or fails to punish perpetrators of incidents of ragging suitably, it will attract punitive action against itself by the UGC.

You are requested to step up anti-ragging mechanism by way of adequate publicity through various mediums; constitution of anti-ragging committee and anti ragging squad, setting up of Anti Ragging Cell, installing CCTV cameras at vital points, Anti- Ragging workshops, updating all websites with nodal officers complete details, alarm bells etc. Regular interaction and counseling with the students, identification of trouble-triggers, mention of Anti-ragging warning in the institution's prospectus and information booklets/brochures shall be ensured. Surprise inspection of hostels, students accommodation, canteens, rest cum recreational rooms, toilets, bus-stands and any other measure which would augur well in preventing/quelling ragging and any uncalled for behavior/incident shall be undertaken.

Students in distress due to ragging related incidents can call the National Anti-ragging Helpline 1800-180-5522 (24x7 Toll Free) or e-mail the Anti-Ragging Helpline at helpline@antiragging.in. For any other information regarding ragging, please visit the UGC website i.e. www.ugc.ac.in & www.antiragging.in and contact UGC monitoring agency i.e. AmanSatyaKachroo Trust on following No. 09871170303, 09818400116 (only in case of emergency).

You are requested to hold the workshops, seminar on eradication of ragging in higher educational institutions and are requested to display Anti Ragging posters at all prominent places like Admission Centre, Departments, Library, Canteen, Hostel, Common facilities etc. The size of posters should be 8X6 feet.

You are requested to get your institution accredited by NAAC/NBA and submit the compliance report and implement the special Drive on anti-Ragging prevention programme
